Half-marathon is 21 098m long and the race has one lap

Start/finish line: In front of the Aminess Maestral Hotel

Race start: 11:00 AM

Control point: 10km

Important notice:

Half-marathon runners will start together with relay race runners, 10km and 5km race runners. They will separate from the 10km race on the fifth kilometre of the route where race judges and organiser officials will be positioned.

All healthy competitors are free to compete at their own risk.

By registering for the race, competitors waive any transfer of liability to the organiser and confirm that they are medically fit and ready to complete the race. The organiser will provide medical assistance in accordance with the rules of road running races.

Everyone over the age of 16 on the day of the event can take part in the half-marathon.

Refreshments will be provided at the start of the race, during the race in accordance with IAAF and HAS propositions related to road running and at the finish line. Additional refreshments will also be provided at the finish line. Electronic chip timing will be used. All results will be published immediately after the race on the organiser's official website.

All competitors will have their net (chip start) and gross time (the time measured from starter's signal to start the race to the moment competitors cross the finish line).

Race bib numbers have to be worn on the chest and they need to be visible during the whole race. Along with the bib, competitors need to have their chips. If the chip is lacking, their result will not be recorded. In case competitors do not adhere to the rules, they may be disqualified.

Time limit is 3:00 h (8:32/km).

Unofficial race results will be published immediately after the end of the race. There will be a three-day appeal period starting from the publishing of the unofficial results. Once the appeal period expires, race results will become official.

Roads will be closed for traffic and there will be bike escort in front of the first group of runners.

If not otherwise specified, Croatian Athletic Federation rules harmonised with IAAF rules shall apply.
